

An Ordinance by Debi Starnes

An Ordinance to authorize the Mayor to execute an agreement with Trinity Community Ministries (TCM), Inc, to allow a dumpster to be placed in the public right-of-way, in exchange for maintenance of said public right-of-way, by TCM.

WHEREAS, TCM has leased the property at 21 Bell St (owned by Big Bethel AME church), to refurbish and provide a dormitory residence, to serve as transitional housing for 36 homeless men,

AND WHEREAS, this property borders a public street, named Raspberry Alley, which was made into a dead-end street decades ago, and TCM's property borders the full northern length of the Raspberry Alley, along with two properties on the southern length.

AND WHEREAS, the City of Atlanta has not provided any maintenance on this dead-end street for many years,

AND WHEREAS, TCM has a need to place a dumpster at the dead-end of this street, past where any of the bordering property owners have ingress and egress off of the street,

BE IT THEREFORE ORDAINED, that the Mayor is authorized to execute an agreement with TCM which allows them to place their dumpster at the dead-end location of Raspberry Alley, in exchange for TCM maintaining Raspberry Alley in a clean and safe manner, on behalf of the City of Atlanta.
